Score: _____ / 3

(25.1) Sartre shares with Kierkegaard the idea that:

- [A] God has devised a plan within which man's purpose lies.
[B] man must put his faith in God's purpose for man.
[C] man must create God by his own choice in order to know the meaning and purpose of life.

(25.2) Sartre shares with Kierkegaard the idea that:

- [A] meaning in life is based upon no one's free choices and commitments.
- [B] we must entrust ourselves to take a "leap of faith" to a higher power.
- [C] human beings are condemned to be free.

(25.3) According to Sartre, to live in “bad faith” is to:

- [A] choose a conventional path in life.
- [B] choose a religious path in life.
- [C] refuse the anguish that goes along with meaning that one chooses in life.
- [D] refuse to answer to God for the sins that one has committed.
