TP Chapter 02 Quiz

Chapter 2.1

Part 1: Recognizing Focus Words

In Chapter 2, you learned that there is one strongly stressed word in each thought group. Because of the strong stress, the word is easier to hear than other stressed words.

Listen to the following sentences, which are broken up into thought groups. Write the focus word for each thought group.

Sentence 1. A large black cat crossed the road chasing a mouse into the back yard.

1. A large black cat →
2. crossed the road →
3. chasing a mouse →
4. into the back yard. →

Sentence 2. Squeaking loudly, the frightened mouse ran through the hole in the fence while the cat jumped over it.

5. Squeaking loudly, →
6. the frightened mouse →
7. ran through a hole →
8. in the fence →
9. while the cat →
10. jumped over it. →

Repeat

Play the audio again, repeating each thought group after the speaker. Keep practicing until you feel comfortable saying the whole sentence.

Activity 2: New information-old information

In Chapter 2, you learned that the focus word emphasizes important new information.

Predict

Look at the dialogue. Predict the focus words and write them on the lines. There is one focus word in each thought group or short sentence.
