Class Rules:

1. Be serious about learning, but also enjoy the experience.
2. Ask questions.
3. Use your first name. Writing your name in English = first name last name.
4. Do not be afraid to make mistakes.
5. Do not be late to class. Late train notices will not be accepted!
6. Bring ALL your class materials every lesson, including a dictionary.
7. Turn off your cell phones before class. Put them away during class.
8. You may not borrow class materials from other students.
9. Use English as much as possible. This is your practice time.
10. Speak in a BIG VOICE. There is no meaning if no one can hear you.
11. If you lie or cheat, you will fail.
12. I give you 3, you FAIL AT 4.
13. Care about your learning. Care about your education. Not caring means that you are wasting everyone's time.
14. Ask me questions or give me comments about anything.
15. Listen to Rubrecht! I am here to teach you! I have good reasons for teaching the things that I teach. You may not understand those reasons, but those reasons exist and are important! I prefer to have fun in class. If you follow directions and listen to Rubrecht, then you will be ok!

Not following these class rules = minus points and possibly failure!!!

University students are not children. You must try to learn.

Take responsibility. Remember and always follow Class Rule #15!!!
